Assistant Principal's Report for Reading Edge Academy

Debbie Smoak, AP

August 29, 2017

Enrollment is at 318 (have a few that haven't arrived yet, will be entering on Monday, Aug. 28th)

Monday – July 31 and Tuesday – August 1

- Administrators attended the District Administrators' Institute with all district Principals, Assistant Principals, Teachers On Assignment, and District Department Heads. There was much necessary information shared from the state and federal government. Training was provided in Data, Supporting New Teachers, Testing, Technology and more.

Monday – August 7

- Professional Development was presented by Dr. Tim Kitts. He is a former Charter Principal, organizer, consultant for others starting charters and curriculum. He talked with both staffs about things we were doing great and things that we could improve upon and then how to improve on those things. All the participants had good things to say about his presentation and are implementing his suggestions.

Tuesday – August 8

- Tim Skinner came and took the staff ID pictures. Mrs. Comardo had the REA, Inc workshop with our staff members. She introduced the new staff to the group:
 - 1st grade – Nikole Goins
 - 2nd grade – Dorianne Hahn and Roberta Lowinski
 - 3rd grade – Christina Dwarika
 - Speech – Ardor Health, Linda Stitt
 - ESD – Alijah Martinez, Kenzie Haner, and Mia Caron (waiting her clearances)

Friday – August 11

- Meet the Teacher – all teachers helped with the organization, traffic, and parents. The program was staggered due to the parking concerns. PTA was a great help!
 - 8:15 a.m. – 8:45 a.m. Kindergarten
 - 9:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. 1st grade
 - 9:45 a.m. – 10:15 a.m. 2nd and 3rd grade
 - 10:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. 4th and 5th grade

Families with multiple children were allowed to see that teacher was available at the time they were here to meet and greet. All seemed to be cooperative.

Monday – August 14

- School starts, opening was good, busy but civil and all seemed to get where they belonged without too much confusion. Curriculum nights began that evening so parents knew they had an opportunity to talk to their teacher that night and didn't have to take time to try and talk to the teacher at the door the first day.
- Curriculum Nights were Monday – Thursday that week from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. All teachers and staff participated in their nights with Special areas picking a good time to share their programs.
 - Monday night – Kindergarten
 - Tuesday night – 1st grade
 - Wednesday night – 4th and 5th grade
 - Thursday night – 2nd and 3rd grade

Monday – August 21

- Solar Eclipse – Mrs. Foster and I had a conference call with Mrs. Comardo on Wednesday, August 16th and decided that we would follow the guidelines that Volusia County schools and sent information home about the safety concerns and that if a parent wanted to pick their student up by 12:30 p.m. that day to view the Eclipse with the family or just for safety concerns, we would consider that 'an excused check-out'.

Wednesday – August 23

- All faculty was trained with the VSET (teacher evaluation tool) during our Early Release

Thursday – August 24

- REA had the Volusia County Sheriff's Inspection and Massey's termite inspection

Friday – September 1

- All teachers have to attend training in either ELA, Math or Science. Their location is determined by their grade level and subject. This is an all day training required.

Wednesday – September 6

- Health Screenings for kindergarten, 1st, 3rd and all new to Volusia County schools
- Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Robles will conduct Number Talks with new teachers, joint schools

Tuesday – September 12 and Wednesday – September 13 – Year book pictures for students

Thursday – September 14

- Spirit Night with Chick Fil A from 5 p.m. till 8 p.m. Faculty with help monitor fun room

Friday – September 15 School Store Assembly

Friday – September 22 Jeans for tuna fish

- The school will collect tuna fish for the Jerry Dolinger Food bank for two weeks and those students who participate and bring in tuna fish will wear jeans on Friday.
